HR IN A CHANGING WORLD

From Process Custodians to Strategic Architects

In today's volatile, digital-first business landscape, one truth stands clear: every transformation begins and succeeds with people. While technologies evolve and markets shift, it's human capability that determines whether organisations grow, adapt, or fade.

Human Resource Management is no longer a support function. It is now a driver of strategic value, culture, and business agility.

THE GLOBAL REALITY

The Capability Gap

A McKinsey study shows that 82% of global CEOs consider talent as a critical competitive edge. Yet, less than 40% believe their HR teams are truly prepared to lead through transformation.

The gap is wide and closing it is now a top boardroom priority.

INDIA'S HR CROSSROADS

Scale vs Strategy

India's workforce is set to become the world's largest but capability still lags behind intent. According to PwC India (2023):

81%
of CEOs are prioritising
HR upskilling

43%
of HR leaders are investing in data-driven decision-making

Yet only 1 in 4 professionals feel ready to contribute strategically

In short, the future belongs to those who can bridge this capability gap now.

WHERE XLRI'S EDPHRM COMES IN

Programme Overview

Offered by XLRI Jamshedpur jointly with XLEAD, in collaboration with SHRM India, the Executive Development Programme in Human Resource Management is a 6-7 months programme crafted for working professionals looking to build deep functional HR skills and transition into strategic HR roles in a global environment.
